

Black Spruce Exploration President & CEO delivers in Corner Brook

Corner Brook, Newfoundland – April 10, 2013 (6:00 p.m.) – W.T. David Murray President & CEO of Black Spruce Exploration Corp. spent the day in Corner Brook, Newfoundland, meeting the media and conversing with business leaders and local politicians. His first stop was a conversation with Bernice Hillier on the CBC morning radio show. It was a spirited and lively conversation that helped introduce Black Spruce Exploration Corp. to the listeners of Western Newfoundland.

After a tour of the new corporate offices at the R.A. Pollett Building, located at Suite 202, 61 Riverside Drive, Mr. Murray was off to the Glynmill Inn to be the keynote speaker at the Greater Corner Brook Board of Trade Luncheon. Over 50 Chamber members attended to learn about Black Spruce Exploration Corp. and the “Western Newfoundland Energy Opportunity.” Area media, comprised of NTV, CBC, Rogers TV and the Western Star, covered the event and highlights of Mr. Murray’s presentation were featured on both provincial television newscasts.
